DEDICATED TO DISABILITY

For over 30 years, Tignes has been one of the most loyal partners of the French Parasport Federation, enabling disabled athletes to benefit from optimum training conditions. The resort also sponsors two disabled athletes, Lou Braz-Dagand and Oscar Burnham (3rd in the 2023 Para Alpine Skiing World Championships), both members of the Tignes Sports Club.

FFH athletes benefit from numerous advantages in Tignes including free ski passes, priority access to the slalom courses, dedicated preparation of the slopes and training runs and free access to sports facilities. The operation is a collective success for everyone involved: STGM, Régie des pistes, Tignes Développement, Tignes Town Hall, Tignes Sports Club and Indigo, all of whom are committed to welcoming people with disabilities.

«THIS PARTNERSHIP DEMONSTRATES THE EXEMPLARY NATURE OF TIGNES IN THE PROVISION OF FACILITIES FOR PEOPLE WITH REDUCED MOBILITY. IN THIS REGARD, TIGNES IS A ROLE MODEL, AN INSPIRATION FOR OTHER RESORTS.»

Last December, Tignes reaffirmed its commitment by renewing a 4-year partnership with the FFH (French Parasport Federation). According to Ludovic Dabauvalle, National Technical Director of the FFH, «Tignes is a unique model in France. There is no other local authority in our country that has made the same commitment to hosting French parasports teams. No other agreement is as comprehensive or as long-term the one we have with Tignes.»

ALASDAIR — MCKENZIE, — A YOUNG — MOUNTAINEERING — LEGEND

10 PEAKS CLIMBED, 4 TO GO

In 2021, aged 19, Alasdair McKenzie - a local by adoption and an ambassador for Tignes - swapped his downhill skis to embark on a mad mountaineering challenge: to climb the Examples include the creation of a car-sharing community, a free shuttle bus service for seasonal workers and holidaymakers, the launch of the GoTignes.net website and the use of electric scooters and bicycles in the summer months...

Other initiatives, such as targeting a European and more local clientele or the creation of a Charter of Committed Resort Professionals, point the resort in the right direction.
