Actions are better than words

LOOKING AHEAD TO 2030 AND 2050

Tignes is accelerating its energy, environmental and social transition. The resort, which aims to become a fully sustainable territory by 2030, boasts 4 fundamental policies, divided into 20 objectives and 92 concrete actions.

- To promote multi-season, responsible tourism, focused on the La Grande Motte glacier transition project.
- To maintain year-round living.
- To preserve natural heritage.
- To reduce the carbon footprint.

Recent measures taken by the resort include the installation of 40 new electric vehicle charging points and the introduction of ultra-fast charging stations in all sectors of Tignes. The Société des Téléphériques de la Grande Motte now boasts two electric shuttle buses and runs its entire fleet on hydrotreated vegetable oil (HVO), a biofuel that reduces greenhouse gas emissions by 80%! The ecological transition is well and truly underway.

Zero waste

THE STRENGTH OF THE COLLECTIVE!

At the beginning of 2024, the local council, the Régie des pistes, the Société des Téléphériques de Grande Motte and Tignes Développement jointly signed the national charter "Montagne zéro déchet sauvage en 2030". This collective objective aims to eradicate uncontrolled pollution in the mountains within 7 years, thereby contributing to a global effort to purify the water cycle. This ambitious initiative, launched by the association Mountain Riders, boasts two major measures: the introduction of recycling bins in the streets of Tignes and "Tchao mégots", a campaign to collect, clean and recycle and transform cigarette butts into insulation for construction or textile upholstery.

This commitment is fully in line with the resort's global transition strategy, a Flocon Vert destination since 2022.

How to reduce your carbon footprint when skiing?

In order to ensure a sustainable future for alpine tourism and to contribute, when possible, to its preservation, there are a few simple individual measures that snow sports enthusiasts can take to reduce their carbon footprint:

- avoid travelling by plane or car and travel by train/public transport.
- heat accommodation to a maximum of 19°C during the day and 17°C at night.
- favour a vegan/vegetarian diet.
- rent equipment.

The future begins today

FOR THE CHILDREN OF TIGNES

In September 2024, the young elected members of the Children's Council in Tignes will plant a time capsule, equipped with a GPS beacon, in the bowels of the Grande Sassièrè glacier. The aim of the experiment is to follow the evolution of the glacier over a 10-year period. This scientific and educational project aspires to raise awareness on global warming in the area and to study the glacier melt. Residents are invited to place a message of hope in the capsule (a drawing, poem or text). See you in 2034!
