

MOUNTAIN SHAKER, 4TH EDITION

From 8 to 14 March 2025, Tignes hosts an intense and exciting event, true to its reputation. For this 4th edition, board culture buffs are in for a treat, with highlights including the Big Air Ski World Cup finals by night and the Slopestyle Ski World Cup finals. Seven crystal globes will be awarded at the end of the competitions.

To see the 2024 edition,
click here.

THE WORLD'S BEST
FREESTYLERS COMPETE
IN TIGNES FROM 8TH TO
14TH MARCH 2025

TIGNES | MOUNTAIN SHAKER

FIS SKI BIG AIR WORLD CUP AT NIGHT

FINALS ON 13TH MARCH 2025

This winter, Tignes offers the world's best freestyle skiers the chance to take part in two World Cup events on the same weekend, one in Big Air and the other in Slopestyle. The resort continues to honour its sporting heritage. The competition is due to take place at the foot of the slopes in Val Claret, offering easy access to spectators, expected to arrive on site at sunset.

Among the competitors, the Swiss rider Mathilde Gremaud and the American Alex Hall, who won the Big air and the Crystal Globe last year. Great atmosphere guaranteed!

"Tignes is seriously committed to freestyle. A leading freestyle resort in France, it has a strong reputation within the industry."

*Greg Guenet
Coach for Tess Ledeux*

"The Mountain Shaker boasts an international and intergenerational appeal, attracting both mountain lovers and city dwellers".

Tignes, organising resort

*"Competing in Tignes, I feel very at home.
The resort boasts a unique atmosphere that I am delighted to share with my family and my fans."*

*Tess Ledeux
Triple World Champion
in freestyle skiing*

FIS SKI SLOPESTYLE WORLD CUP

FINALS ON 14TH MARCH 2025

Freestyle frenzy!

Tignes, home of freestyle skiing and major international events (1992 Albertville Olympics, Winter X Games Europe from 2010 to 2013...), confirms its reputation, at the summit of the international scene, by hosting the forthcoming Slopestyle World Cup.

The world's best skiers will compete in Big Air and Slopestyle to increase their chances of a podium and taking home the famous Crystal Globe.

Tess Ledeux left her mark last winter, winning on home soil ahead of long-time rival Mathilde Gremaud.

3

TIGNES | MOUNTAIN SHAKER

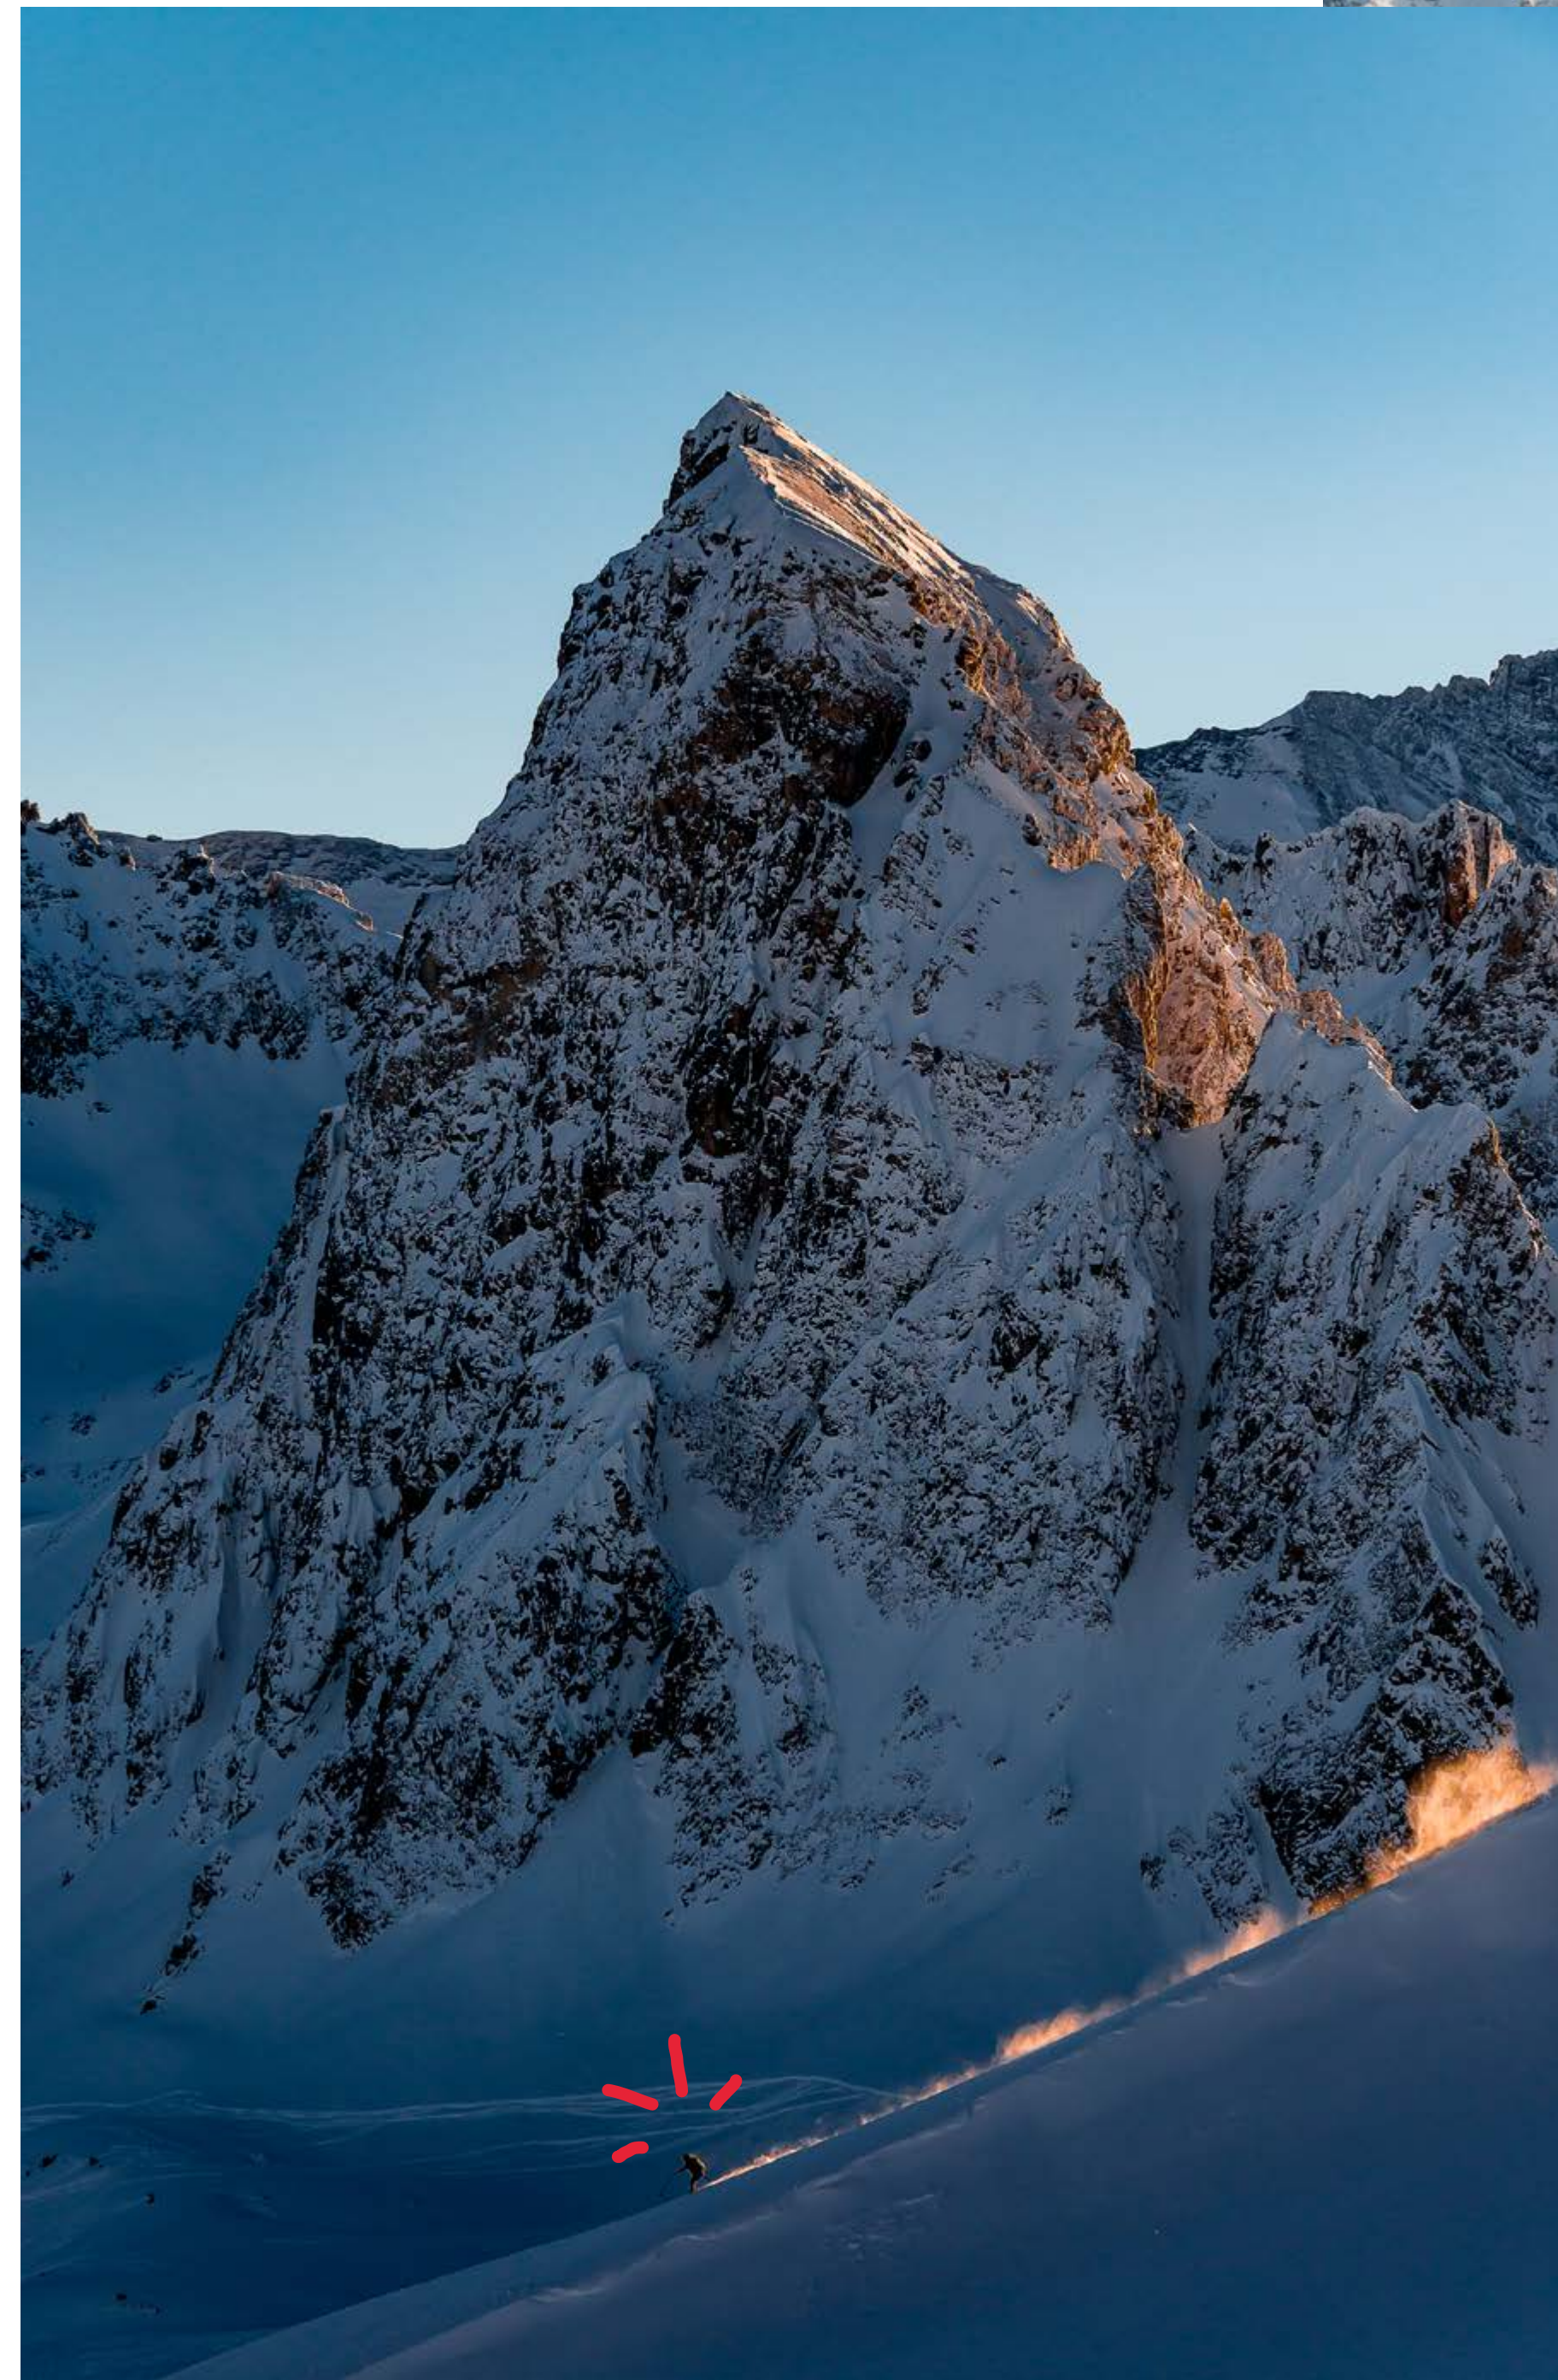

FRENCH FREERIDE SERIES

8TH MARCH 2025 (possible postponement to 9th March)

Freeride World Tour Qualifier 2 or 3 stars

On this occasion, the best amateur freeriders will attempt to secure their qualification for the Freeride World Cup with an off-piste run down Les Tufs - a 600 m vertical drop with 300 m of couloirs, overlooking the lake in Tignes. An intense and spectacular competition to be enjoyed by spectators, positioned on the slopes in Tignes. Don't miss: a snow-science conference, mountain-themed film screenings, avalanche rescue training, freeride and freestyle lessons with Tignes ski schools.

STREET ART

During the Mountain Shaker event, street art takes pride of place in Tignes! This event has attracted and inspired artists from all over the world, some of whom perform for the public.

More information at: www.tignes.net

4

TIGNES | MOUNTAIN SHAKER

INDOOR SKATEBOARD: FISE XPERIENCE SERIES

11TH & 12TH MARCH 2025

The FISE Xperience - first stage of the national tour - is due to take place in Tignes this coming March. From 4:00 pm to 11:00 pm, French and foreign skateboarders will compete at the indoor skatepark at Tignespace - specially equipped for the occasion with a line reserved for experts: "This event, part of a programme that highlights other freestyle disciplines, is a first for a ski resort", explains Francis Guichardot, tour director of the FISE Xperience Series.

In addition to the professional men's and women's competitions, amateur and junior events will take place prior to the professional finals.

"I love this competition and the atmosphere is incredible!"

*Stellio Sakellarides, pro skateboarder and winner of the
FISE Xperience Series in 2023*

